The teaching of the elderly are
not to be covered with a basket.
The words of grandmothers should not be dropped ever, never, never.

The inheritance of my mother,
my father, my grandparents
This is my gift, my wealth.

The teaching of the elderly are
not to be covered with a basket.
The words of grandmothers should
not be dropped ever, never, never.

Beauty is my peace,
Love and happiness are my peace,
The skills passed down to me are my
peace,
The wealth of my country is my peace.

The teaching of the elderly are
not to be covered with a basket.
The words of grandmothers should not be dropped ever, never, never.
